This month started out with the pulling of boats off the dock system. Teams were formed that staged the boats, pulled them and trailered them to the yard where they were each power washed and finally stored in the yard. Mary provided a sloppy joes for lunch to keep our energy levels up. Great work all.

The Graduation Ceremony for our second adult sailing class was held on Oct 3. After taking an extremely challenging exam, Phil presented all the graduates with certificates of achievement. It was a great group of students with many purchasing boats and joining Jolly Roger. Welcome aboard to all. Neil was also awarded a replica of the original JRSC burgee in recognition of all the time and effort he put into both classes. Thank you, Neil, for the great job you did!!

For those of you who missed it, Oktoberfest was a raging success. The club was full of Damien and Herren dressed in German attire. The food and appetizers were outstanding, the German dancers impressive and entertaining, and games fun. Later our own EDISTO played and kept us entertained for the rest of the evening. A personal thanks to Lynne, Marilyn, Norma, Mary and Stephanie for the Commodore's reception and party prior to the actual Oktoberfest. It was an amazing event.

October also saw dock work parties. Thank you to all the volunteers who came out and helped to pull all the finger docks out. Over two days, old members and many new members formed teams and efficiently pulled and stored 14 finger docks on the bulkhead. Many hands make light work. Thanks to all.

The club continues to be open on Friday nights. We have been having EDISTO or a "movie night". The kitchen opens at 6:30 and entertainment follows at about 7. Come join us for comradery and a relaxing evening.

This will be my last official Skulldugger article as your Commodore. I just want to say "thank you" to all of you for making this year so fulfilling. JRSC is an exceptional group of sailors and I've been honored to be your Commodore this year. May you all have fair winds and following seas in the year ahead.

As I was putting a tarp on my catboat in the JRSC yard, it occurred to me...

Is there any better place on Earth than a boatyard? I've been to dozens of them over the past couple of decades. There is nothing like them. Think about it. The sights. The smells. Gulls wheeling in the air above. Boats on the hard. Saws and hammers. A generator firing up. Owners diligently working to get their craft ready for Spring launch or Fall storage.

And that guy. You know him. He seems older than salt. He doesn't live in the yard, but he might as well. He's always there. He sports a full grey beard and a battered hat. An unlit pipe hangs from his lips. He never seems to actually work on a boat...but he knows everything. He'll tell you that you MUST have a diesel inboard. Five minutes later he'll wax nostalgic about how great the Atomic Four gasoline engine was... and tell you how to tear one apart.

He always seems to be a Navy veteran, serving in one war or another. Heck, he's old enough to have been in Philippine Bay during our war with Spain. And there's always a fading tattoo of an anchor, a mermaid, or a wooden warship on his forearm.

He can tie knots blindfolded...his withered hands moving quickly. Half Hitch, Bowline, Sheet Bend, Clove Hitch... If I didn't know better, I'd say he probably invented one type of knot or maybe two. And if you want to lose half a day, ask him about the sailing philosophy behind a Barber Hauler. (Yes, Ted, it's a REAL thing...look it up.)

Boatyards. Wonderful places that are ripe with interesting people. This fall we'll congregate in OUR boatyard. We'll ready our sailboats for Winter. We've got some new members in our boatyard this year. They'll ask questions. The experienced among us will channel that "old salt"...and our "wisdom" will spill forth.

The line of knowledge will extend from the JRSC boatyard of 1946 to today. It remains unbroken. Lessons learned. Lessons taught. We stand on the shoulders of sailing giants. What a great club. What great people...young and old.

But if there's anything better than a boatyard in the Fall...it's a boatyard in the Spring.

Fair winds,

Phil Fry

Vice Commodore
